

Karina Linnea Axelsen.

If you're quick on the uptake, you've already noticed that my name's Karina. Blond hair, blue-green eyes and not very tall, I think, I'm 1.62 m, so I'm a tiny girl☺.

I'm a very relaxed and free person, who takes things as they come. I don't like planning thing in advance. That's confusing, but that doesn't mean, that I don't look forward for you guys arriving at our school, in April.

I'm not a girly girl, who only thinks of make-up, clothes, and boys and so on, but of cause that's a part of being a girl, but I just care more about having fun, hanging out with my friends, playing football, and using time with my family. I'm the kind of girl, who doesn't care if my clothes get filthy during a football match, at lunch hour.

I'm a very friendly and thoughtful person. I'm always trying to get everyone to make it happens, so nobody feels left outside.

One of my best friends trough teen years describes me as; a sweet and fresh girl, who is kind and caring. She likes to do different things than other girls and she has many boy friends, because she shares some of the same interests with the boys. If there are any of hers friends, who needs to talk, she's right there for them, ready to help. She has a temper if she gets annoyed about some thing, but she can master it. She's extrovert and likes challenges, but simultaneous also a safe environment.

In my spare time I'm doing whatever I want to do. Normal teenage stuff like hanging, dating, going to parties, doing my homework, going at work, going to football, and besides my scooter must be maintained.

If I'm not hanging out with my friends, I'm probably playing football or at work in Bilka. That's the three things I'm using most time at. God that was short...

I live with my parents and my two little brothers.

My mums' name is Jette, she work in a NATO-bunker, where she is canteen leader, and my dad Hans is working for Vestas. My youngest brother is called Thomas, and he 10 years old, my other brother is called Heine, and he's 14 years, they are both going to school in Løgstrup.

We live on a small farm, surrounded by fields and nothing. It sounds very cool, right? - Some people might think that it sucks, but I like it. I like living far away from all the city-noise, and the freedom that fellows. If you want to scream out loud, you can just do it, people won't notice you,

The farm I live on, is not anything special, it's just a little one with a few fields. No animals except for a tiny stupid cat and a lovely dog. I once had a hamster, but it died - ops! At the moment I'm considering to buy a cute little fish, such a blue one, like the blue one with loss of memory from "finding nemo". That's cute.

That I live on a farm has also made my a bit boyish. I like cars, scooters, ATVs , tanks - just things with motors. I have a little dream of entering the military - don't ask me why, I just think it would be exciting.

I hope all this made some of you curious. I'm looking forward to getting to know you better and then see you guys in April. That's going to be fun.
