

Dear you, who are going to visit with me in Denmark. :)

My name is Miri Sabag. I'm a 16-year-old girl, with just too much energy (except for in the mornings), who lives in Denmark. I've got a little brother whose name is Joel. My mom and dad's names are Lone and Jakob. I've got a big fat cat which is named kisser. My school is 10 CV or Viborg Ungdomsskole, my class is 10.b. Now I'd like to write a little more about myself:

In my spare time I go horse riding; I'm doing both dressage and jumping. Both are very appealing to me, 'cuz they're kinda about the same thing; being able to control the horse, 'showing' who's the 'master', and completing a 'trial'. I ride on two different horses. The one for jumping is called Zache, he's a skewbald (skewbald is a colour of the horse. There's also piebald when they're two coloured, but that's black and white.

Skewbald is brown and white.) where the brown colour is reddish. He's one of the biggest ponies my riding school has. He's beautiful and very good at jumping, the only bad thing about him is when I'm jumping in the outdoors. He likes to play stupid; he almost threw me off his back last time I was at a competition. When it comes to dressage the other pony is younger, than the first one so she has a lot to learn, but she's learning pretty fast. Her name is Rødhætte, it's the Danish name for 'little red riding hood'. She's spotted, but with the same colours as Zache, she's also a little smaller than him. Her ears are very big and have the reddish brown colour. That's the reason for her name. I think. Well that is what two 'days' of my week goes of to. Well when you come here to Denmark I'll probably be riding some other horses. I'm to big for Zache and Rødhætte.

Other than that I've started on another school. I really like to write stories, especially in English. My only problem is that I never get to finish my stories. English is one of the things I'm very good at, one of the reasons for that is; I grew up with it. I have a lot of family in Israel, but the family I visit the most is (of course the family in Denmark, but other than that) it's my grandpa in London.

The last and most filling thing of my spare time is the computer. I sit at it almost constantly; this is from where I speak to all of my friends. Mostly I listen to music or read Japanese comics over the internet. The rest of the time I'm playing WoW, maybe you don't know what it is, but it's an online game which is very popular. Sometimes I may be doing all three of them on the same time. Other than that I like to play other computer games like, Devil May Cry, Neverwinter Nights and other games like. Another thing is that I'm very fond of The Sims.

Oh! Almost forgot what some of my Sundays go to. I go role-playing too! Its soooooo much fun! You get to be a completely different person than yourself! I haven't been doing it for a long time, but I've already got a really cool costume. I believe so myself.

Well onto the next 'topic': My likes and Hates. Okay that sounds weird? Well I AM weird. When it comes to this there isn't much I hate... Okay maybe some things, like tomatoes and pepper and hmm? Nothing else? Well STAIRS! I hate them! They make my knees hurt! Okay I can't get my mind on other things I hate right now, but now it's to the likes! I like animals, food, fantasy, sci-fi, computer games, internet, books, comics, mangas, animes, music, wii, console games, and lots of other stuff.

Hmm... My I should tell a bit about my dreams... I don't really now what I want to be in the future, but I have a lot of ideas. Having my own farm, where I breed horses. Making the best console game ever. Becoming a famous pastry chef. Travel the whole world visiting every country there is. Learn a lot of different languages. Well it's broad variety of things I'd like to do in the future.
